QUESTION 4

[5]

Read the source below and answer the questions that follow.

The first motor car to be built in huge numbers and very cheaply was the Model T Ford, which was made in America. Soon people all over the world were driving Model T Fords. Bernice Mitchley was a young girl in the 1920's. Now she is a granny. Read what she remembers of her family's Model T Ford:

“My father had a Model T Ford called tin Lizzy. You didn't start this car by turning a key. The car had to be cranked up with a starting handle. This wasn't always easy, as the handle could kick back quite viciously. When we went for a drive, we would take a bottle of water with us, as well as several cans of petrol. We usually also had ropes and chains, in case the car got stuck when the roads were wet and muddy.”
