QUESTION 5[5]

Read the text and answer the questions.

Ali is 11 years old. He has a spelling test every Monday morning. Ali sits at a table with two of his best friends and four other children. He sometimes struggles to remember his spelling words and feels nervous before he has to do the test.

Ali's friends are good at spelling and he thinks that they are better than him.

This week, the spelling words are really tricky and Ali is worried he will not get many of them correct. He studies hard for the test but is still not confident in his abilities.

Ali does the test but cannot concentrate because he is watching his friends writing the spelling words down really quickly and effortlessly. This makes him feel really anxious and upset.

When they mark their tests Ali gets three out of ten correct. He feels really embarrassed. At playtime, the other children that sit at his table – Abigail, Peter and Keerav – start to call him names and say that he is stupid. They laugh at him and make fun of him.

Ali gets upset and starts crying. Ali's best friend, George, pushes the other children and shouts at them to stop. George gets into trouble because the teacher sees him pushing the other children.

5.1 Why do you think Ali feels like this about the spelling test?

 _____(1)

5.2 What do you think Ali could do to make the bullying stop?

 _____(1)

5.3 Explain why you think George pushed the other children?
