Question 2

Question	Answer	Mark allocation	Level
2	Introduction:  A leader is someone who:  listens and works with others in a team,  is dedicated to helping others or  is brave and is prepared to give up  something for the sake of others.  During Apartheid, people were divided  according to race.  People were jailed if they tried to stop  Apartheid. Weren't given a choice in  where they wanted to live. Were not  allowed to marry each other. Could not  move freely. A democracy means all the  people of a country have a right to choose  who their leaders will be. Body:  Fatima Meer was involved in many  organisations that fought against the  apartheid government. She organized  marches and meetings. She raised funds  to build schools in poorer communities.  She helped build better understanding  between black and Indian communities.  She was involved in women's  organisations that helped people in the  community. She was jailed without a trial. Conclusion:  Fatima Meer was a political activist. She  stood up for what she believed in and  helped inspire those around her to do the  same. Even though she ran the risk of  being jailed, she continued to fight for what  was right.	5	High
