Section B:Question 4:[5]

Read through the case study and answer the questions that follow:

Late again! The alarm did not go off. My phone's battery must have died during the night. I check my tablet, 7% power. Today is not off to a good start. Where did I put my school shirt? Lounge? Perhaps in the washing basket? So creased! No time to iron it now. Where is my left shoe? Under my bed? I find it in the kitchen. I have to eat breakfast, no time. I grab a packet of crisps and a softdrink from the fridge. What about lunch? I will buy something at the tuckshop, I hope they have Coke. Did I brush my teeth? I drag my fingers through my hair, it will have to do. The other children in my class will definitely make fun of me again! I wish my life was more organized!

4.1 List three things that the narrator could do to be better organized for school. (3)

A. _____

B. _____

C. _____

4.2 The narrator states "the other children in my class will definitely make fun of me again!" Identify this type of bullying. (1)

Question 5:*[5]

5.1 After reading the case study, complete the table by filling in Rakgadi's possible responses to the coach's statement: Don't be silly, Rakgadi, you're a girl!

Rakgadi

Rakgadi loved soccer. She watched her school team and the big teams on TV every time they played. Her soccer ball went with her everywhere and in every free moment she kicked it around. All that kicking was not a waste of time. Rakgadi would score a goal from any angle. She could get around any opponent.

She badly wanted to play soccer at school, but soccer was only offered for boys. “If I go and speak to the coach, I’m sure he’ll let me join in the practises. I’ll tell him how keen I am,” she thought.

But when she asked the coach, he just laughed. “Don’t be silly, Rakgade, you’re a girl!”

Question 6:

[5]

Dear Diary,

It is totally crazy around here! You will never believe what happened! Today the president of South Africa, Cyril Ramaphosa, declared a national state of emergency! No way, right? That is not the worst of it. He announced emergency measures for the entire country. We are now in level 5 due to Covid 19. This is a virus that spread across the world. The president decided to put us under lockdown! This is to ensure that as few as possible people die from the disease. Apparently, we are the only country that started the lockdown before anyone had already died. I think he made a good decision. We cannot leave our homes, and only my parents can go out to buy food from the Shops. Pharmacies are also open. We cannot visit any restaurants or shopping malls. They said it would be for three weeks! The problem is that they think GBV will increase, because everyone has to stay home. GBV might become an epidemic.

Well, I will keep you posted,

6.1 GBV signifies Gender Based Violence. People who commit Gender Based Violence are bullies. One or more of these might cause somebody to behave like a bully. Fill in the missing ones: (2)

- a. Their parents might have the following problem: _____.
- b. They have been bullied.
- c. They have no friends.
- d. They have a low _____.
- e. They want other people to think they are big and powerful.
- f. They are selfish and want their own way.

6.2 What advice would you give to someone who is being bullied? (1)
